Gail Bridgman To Lead Grand March
As Queen Of Prom

Queen of the annual Monogram Formal at St. Joseph's College, Rensselaer, Ind., will be Gail Bridgman, of Racine, Wisconsin. She will be the guest of Donald Clark, president of the Monogram Club. Mary Lee Koester, of Fort Wayne, will be the guest of Steve Theodosius, treasurer of the club. The formal will be held Saturday night, April 18.

Science Club Plans Program April 26

Plans are in the making for the Science Day Exhibit which will be sponsored by the Albertus Magnus Society, April 26.

The purpose of the affair is to acquaint the public with the facilities of the Science Department of the College. Demonstrations and lectures will be given by the members of the club in the chemistry, physics, biology, and geology labs.

Invitations have been extended to high schools in Indiana and Illinois. The public and all the St. Joe students are welcome to view the exhibits.

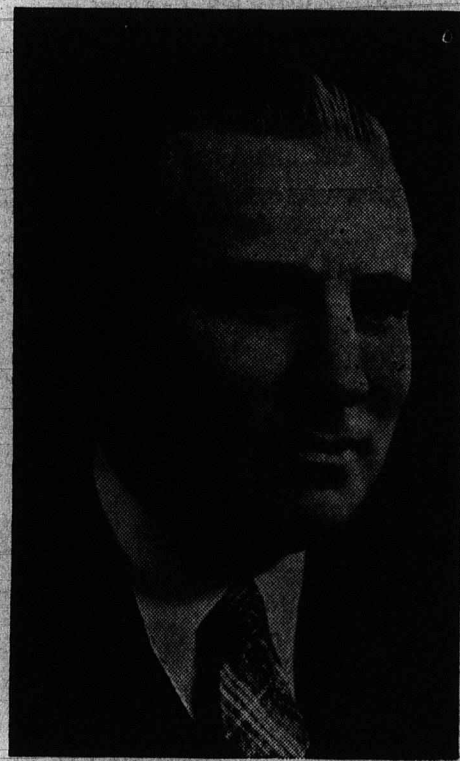

William Browning, junior from Evansville, Ind., is the chairman.

Bennett Singers Present Program On College Stage

Under the direction of Frank Bennett, the Mendelssohn Quartet appeared in the College Theatre tonight (Wednesday), in a program of songs.

The quartet was composed of Maldwyn Jones, Earl Bichel, Frank Bennett, and Leonard Ellisson.

On the program were the following numbers: Verdi's Oh Hail Us Ye

Maestro Eddy Howard Will Furnish Music For Colorful Scene

Once a year Collegeville's campus reflects a picture out of the "Blue Book" as formally attired students, alumni and friends prepare to attend the highlight of St. Joseph's social season—the Annual Monogram Spring Formal.

In the gala setting of the beautifully decorated Rensselaer Armory, dancers will swing and sway to the music of Eddy Howard and his orchestra. The dance will be held on Saturday, April 18, beginning at 9 p. m., and lasting until 1 a. m.

The decorating committee will outdo itself with a new style for transforming the armory into a grand ballroom. In keeping with the victory spirit a booth selling War Stamps will be set up just inside the door. It is hoped that those attending will be swayed patriotically and contribute generously.

New Decorative Effect

Instead of the suspended roof of former years a butterfly effect will hover over all, and inverted arches will be draped between the crepe covered posts.

A new type folding bid, colored white and bearing the school seal, will be sold. The bids will be $3.50 per couple; they went on sale this week. A beautiful program with a mother of pearl cover and the gold school seal peeping through a hexagon opening, and trimmed with purple will constitute this year's favor. The attendance is expected to equal or surpass last year's 125 couples.

Heading the grand march will be prom king Don Clark, Kankakee, Ill., and prom queen Gail Bridgman, who will be attended by Miss Betty Wilson, Washington, Ind., escorted by Maurice Gutsell, and Miss Mary Lee Koester, Ft. Wayne, Ind., escorted by Steve Theodosius.

The Rev. Carl Neiset, C.P.P.S., will be host; Mrs. Harry F. Clark, of Kankakee, Ill., hostess.

Literary Contests End Tonight At Midnight

Tonight (Wednesday) at midnight, the Alumni Essay and the Pursley Literary contests close. Entries must be submitted to some member of the English Department prior to that time to be eligible for competition.

First prize in the Alumni Essay Contest was won last year by Richard M. Scheiber. Joseph Pax's short story took first prize in the 1941 Pursley Contest.

Glee Club Sings On WOWO Then At St. Patrick's Lyceum

Fort Wayne, Indiana, played host to St. Joseph's College Glee Club last Sunday, April 12, as the group traveled there for a broadcast and concert.

Under the direction of the Rev. Robert Koch, C.P.P.S., the glee club presented a twenty-five minute broadcast over Fort Wayne's largest radio station, WOWO. Going on the air at 5:05 p. m. the group sang "Night and Day," by Cole Porter; "The Lost Chord," by Sullivan; "Your Land and My Land," by Sigmund Romberg; "Ciribiribin," by Pestalozza; and Irving Berlin's "God Bless America."

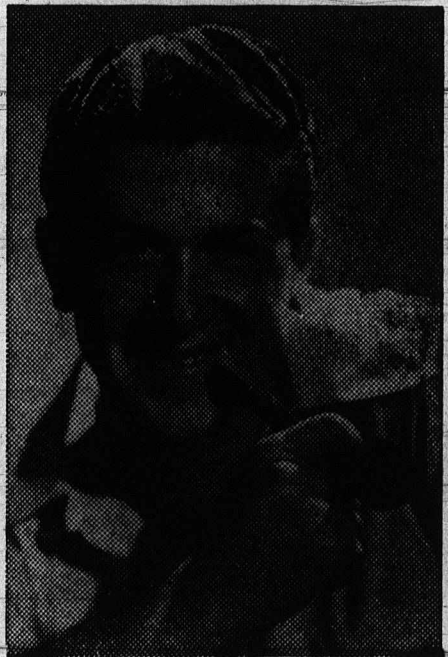

Soloist Joseph Reardon sang Schubert's "Ave Maria," and accompanist Francis Kinney played a piano selection, "To Spring."

Following the broadcast the Fort Wayne chapter of the alumni of St. Joseph's College entertained the group with a supper at Fort Wayne's beautiful Berghoff Gardens.

During the supper the club sang two selections, accompanied by the Three T's, the orchestra playing at the Gardens.

At 8:00 Sunday evening the glee club presented a concert, under the auspices of the alumni chapter, at St. Patrick's Lyceum. At the intermission of the concert Monsignor Lawrence Monahan, rector of St. Patrick's parish, gave a short talk on education at St. Joseph's. Mr. Edward Fisher, publicity director of the college, also made a few remarks.

Maestro

EDDY HOWARD and his band will play this year's Monogram Formal. Howard is the composer of such hit tunes as "Careless," "If I Knew Then," etc. His band is a favorite at Chicago's Aragon-Trianon rooms.

Don't Forget: For Victory

Saturday night, the Monogram Club will sponsor its annual Spring Formal. There will be the swishing of evening gowns and the staidness of formal dress. A famous band leader will be on the pavilion playing the hit songs of the season. It will be a remarkable setting to escape from the realities of war and suffering that are everywhere rampant.

For some reason, however, it just doesn't seem fair to forget. Not even for an evening. So much of what Americans hold dear is at stake in this fight. It would not do to lose sight of our objectives even for a night. Remember how fatal was the lightning thrust of the Japanese that eventful Sunday morning last December. It took only a few hours; yet it was one of the most terrifying disasters to come out of the present conflict.

According to those in charge of the Monogram Formal, there will be a booth erected at the Armory, Saturday night. On sale at that booth will be war stamps for victory. The booth will probably be appropriately decorated with flag bunting. It will be attractive enough to catch the eye. As a matter of fact, though, the booth should do more than catch the dancers' eyes.

All of those who attend the Spring Formal are urged to purchase war stamps during the evening. It has been suggested here before that the girls be given corsages of victory stamps instead of the customary flowers. Certainly it would be a patriotic thing to do. And it is not exactly out of line with what other colleges and universities are doing. Many large state schools went in for the stamp corsage exclusively.

As this is written, thirty-six thousand American troops are held imprisoned by the Nipponese on Bataan. Youthful American fighter pilots are engaging the enemy on fronts from Australia to China; from Iceland and Greenland to the Panama Canal. Buying war stamps is one small way of helping the cause. Again we say—why not a corsage of victory stamps this Saturday night?

That Band Again

Last Thursday night the College Band, under the direction of Professor Paul Tonner, gave its annual Spring Concert. Because of the nearness of Easter vacation, the band members had only three days in which to rehearse. The way they came through is a lesson to everyone. If you want to do something, work hard at it. The harder you work the more successful you will be. Dreaming is all right in its place, but our world is a world of reality. You have to be awake, you have to work if you want to succeed.

Following the Flickers

With Dick Schreiber

Easter vacation is gone. Only the five-week home stretch remains of the 1941-42 scholastic year. Collegeville will be all agog this week for the Monogram Spring Formal. Formals and tux are in order. Everybody will smoke tailor-mades for the weekend. But enough of such prattle.

In spring a young man's fancy is supposed to lightly turn to thoughts of love. Over Easter, though, our own thoughts began to turn to circuses. If there was ever a grand institution it is the circus. It seems to us that more movies could be made about the circus. The sights and sounds of the sawdust ring have been barely touched by Hollywood. The field is open.

RITZ: Friday and Saturday—Double feature day at the Ritz. Johnny Downs and Frances Langford in "All American Co-Ed," and "Please, Miss Polly," with Slim Summerville and Zazu Pitts make up the bill. The co-ed picture is A-2 with the Legion. The other picture has not yet been reviewed by the Legion.

"All American Co-Ed" is a harmless little tale about a college called Quinceton. (Note the similarity to Princeton.) The gentlemen there are staging their annual revue. What happens then makes up the story.

RITZ: Sunday, Monday, Tuesday—Dorothy Lamour and William Holden (late of the blood and thunder west-erns) are starred in "The Fleet's In." Jimmy Dorsey and his lads are thrown in for good measure. Legion Rating: A-2.

This isn't much of a story, but it packs a wallop on the song hits; Tangerine, I Remember You, Arthur Murray Taught Me Dancing In A Hurry, and a number of others. Old stuff for the Lamour fans.

PALACE: Sunday, Monday, Tuesday—Well, siree, I dew declare. Right out of Pine Ridge and their Jot 'em Down store come Lum and Abner with Zazu Pitts in "The Bashful Bachelor." Legion Rating: A-1.

Everybody knows what to expect from this feature by virtue of Lum and Abner's long radio career. If you are looking for something "sophisticated" stay away from this one. Otherwise you may enjoy it.

RITZ: Wednesday and Thursday—Out of the thrill-teeming pages of Jack London's book comes "The Adventures of Martin Eden," starring Glenn Ford and Claire Trevor. Some critics believe this was London's greatest story. You'll like its hot-blooded adventure. Legion Rating: A-2.

❖ Campus Capers ❖

Prom coming, money coming (we hope), best date coming, Eddy Howard coming; all equal one swell time . . . A word to the first-year men—we can remember when we were freshmen and turned up our noses at the event only to see the Saturday of the prom dawn sunny with its hustle and bustle for most—and did we regret not going . . . And it's still not too late, for that Goldcamp date bureau is still goin'.

To Red Brier goes the honor for the new cognomen given to "twice as much for a nickel" stuff . . . Yep! He named Pepsi Cola after what Bro. Kosalko called him after one lap . . . nothing else but Slo Death . . . Congrats to Stan (the Ruthless) Pukelis on that fine solo work the other nite at the band concert . . . also on the fine solo work in town on any town nite.

It seems Drexel hall has taken national defense to heart . . . Father Koller (who, incidentally, is on the Civilian Morale Committee) doesn't seem to see the point in the lately organized and lately disorganized expeditionary force . . . or didn't you hear those names called last Sunday? . . . Take a look at Johnny Risch's hair—'tis rumored that the business end of a curling iron was seen in action there.

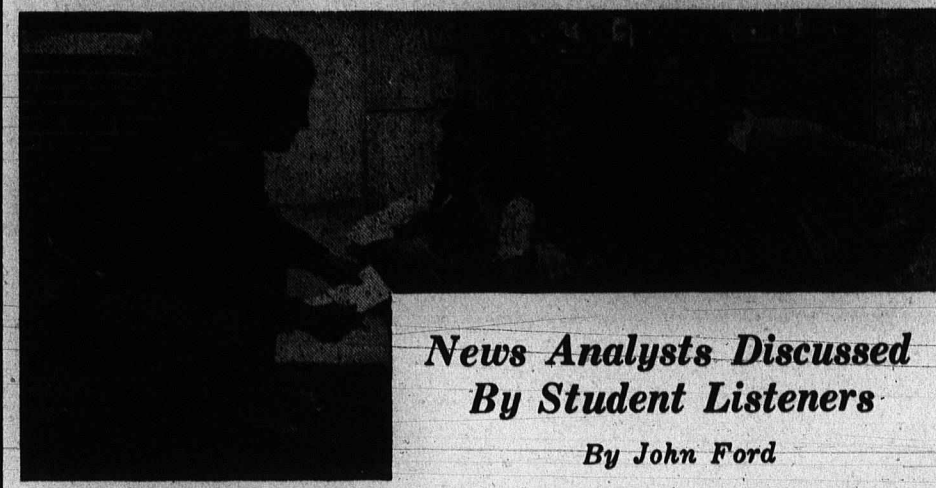

We had hope of bringing an exclusive scoop on a couple of the more reserved members of Puma lair . . . Capun Breezy Weezy Marcis has his date for the 18th all lined up . . . but the question is WHO? . . . As for Backstop Bill Gladen, we hear from the grape vine he's going to be 'shocked with a blister' (courtesy of J. P. Keehner).

Nobby Walsh has asked to be added to the Cavalcade of the Jilted—it happened over Easter . . . So he steps in with Schlereth and Carlos . . . And what's this about J. Callahan (from Peoria) taking a back seat to the fast-stepping track man, Bobby Boy Sherman?

Then there's the fine legendary tale of the casanova from Gasper doing the Renssy nite spots (Lunghi's, Alice's, and what have you) to the tune of greenbacks . . . We wonder if the following have heard—Drier, Scollard, Graetz, Pukelis, Lapsys, Stadtmiller, etc.,—The All-American Femme.

Space diminished but we'd like to nominate two voices heard on the radio for (1) the most repulsive—'Peter Pain' of the liniment plugs, (2) the most different—the "I want a package of . . . chewing gum" girl.

But enuf of that till the next meeting, which will be after prom and after Clark (if he gets past Monett School) has his great day in leading the grand 'marcia' . . . So, bye now, 'til then.

News Analysts Discussed By Student Listeners

By John Ford

Dance bands and comedians have always had the attention of college students on the ether waves. Not until the present war, with all its implications, did many tune in on news broadcasts. Now they are listened to faithfully.

This week STUFF went to the students with the question: "Who is your favorite news commentator?"

From Cleveland, Ohio, Tom Fox, a freshman, said, "I like Walter Winchell because his novel presentation keeps you on your toes."

Another freshman, Harry Roehrig, from Louisville, Ky., likes Lowell Thomas because his voice is appealing, and most important, because he does not color the news.

Fulton Lewis Jr. was praised by sophomore John Feicht from Canton, Ohio. "He not only gives the facts but he affords his listeners the background that is essential to understanding the real significance of the news."

Marty Timlin, a sophomore from Youngstown, Ohio, chose Cal Tinney. "He gives you up-to-the-minute news without any of the facts altered and a few added that will leave you with full knowledge of the situation."

Lowell Thomas was also picked by junior Joe Beall, from Mattoon, Ill. "He has always been a favorite of mine," says Joe.

Dick Haffner, a junior from Indianapolis, Ind., likes Cal Tinney because "his views and opinions do a great deal to supplement his interesting programs."

Senior Tom Fagan from Terre Haute, Ind., selects H. V. Kaltenborn, because "he not only reports the news, but is usually on hand when news is being made."

With this opinion we will borrow from the news commentators one of their favorite words—"Thirty."

Senior Sketches

By John Feicht

During the present scholastic year the Commerce Club has developed rapidly both as a social and a study organization. The success of this club is due at least in part to the only charter member remaining in the club, John Singletary. As president, John has worked faithfully with the club moderator and other officers in the development of the organization.

Accounting being his major subject, John has hopes of landing a job as an accountant for a utility company. He hopes to do this at least until he is called into the army.

Singletary hails from Joliet, Illinois, where he prepared for his college education at Joliet Catholic High School.

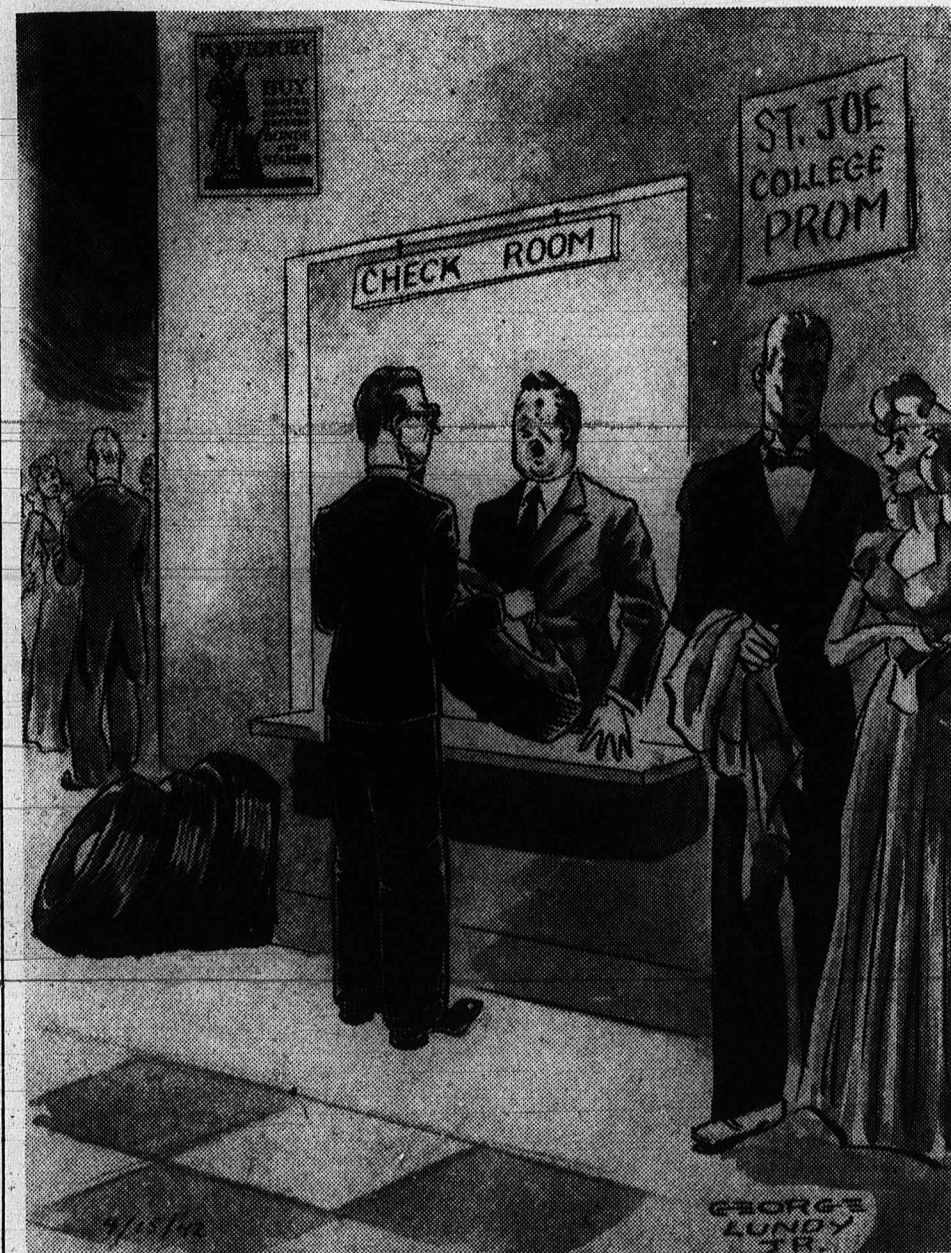

While at St. Joe he has held membership in the C. L. S. for two years, being secretary this year; he has been a four-year man in the Raleigh Club; and as before mentioned, he is a charter member of the Commerce Club. Vice-president of the latter in his junior year, he is president this year. Singletary was elected by classmates to the office of class treasurer this year.

Two Indiana conference schools have dropped tennis and golf this spring, cancelling two matches in each sport with St. Joe.

Nick Scollard, St. Joseph's All-Catholic, All-American end last fall, will resume his football career at Great Lakes Training School this summer. Big Nick went up to the Navy base last week to go in as Coxswain. The Sailors meet Notre Dame, Minnesota, Iowa and all the other Midwest powers this year, and the former Puma star is eager to try his hand against the big boys.

Butler has St. Joe for the last game on their gridiron card next fall. The Pumas opened the Bulldog's schedule the past two years. That's quite a jump from the warm-up to the climax! Could that 13-6 victory of St. Joe's last year have anything to do with it?

Valparaiso University has a new football stadium included in its five-year expansion program.

Frankie Stauct, freshman short-stop, is reported to have turned in some flashy fielding in the fatal Indiana series. Mauri Gutsell turned in the best pitching performance for the Pumas, losing a 4-3 ten-inning heartbreaker.

Bobby Burns, St. Joe student last semester and highest ranking amateur welterweight boxer in the country, won his fight for the Chicago team against the New York champion in Madison Square Garden recently. Chicago lost, however, 9-7, the first time they were defeated in the inter-sectional bouts in nine years. Burns is now to be called into the Navy.

The Athletic Board is expected to announce soon the date of the Spring Athletic Banquet honoring the basketball and boxing teams.

Puma Nine Win Encounter With Chicago Teachers 12-5

St. Joe's baseball team met the Chicago Teachers Monday and amassed 12 runs to defeat the Teachers 12-5.

Errors contributed greatly to the Puma victory. The Chicago boys outthit the St. Joe gang, but the Collegevillers made every one of their six hits count. They cashed in on every break they got and came through with hits when they had men on the bases.

George Ellsperman knocked out three of the Pumas' hits; veteran catcher Bill Gladen got two out of three times at bat. Veteran Mauri Gutsell was the winning pitcher; he looked great on the mound while mowing them down for his first win of the season.

The Chicago Teachers team might have had a better chance if their fielding had been somewhat better. They collected 9 hits.

Cubs Take College Squad By 4-3 Score Saturday

In a practice game last Saturday the Academy Cubs beat the college Reserves by a score of 8-4. Against the combined pitching of Ruschau and Joseph, the Reserves could get but one earned run and five hits. They struck out 12 and allowed only one walk. Leahy, Camp and Shine went away with hitting honors, each getting two hits, the latter for the Reserves.

The first game for the Cubs will be Wednesday (today) at Remington. The probable battery will be Ruschau and Brading.

Softball Starts Monday

The intramural softball league will swing into action next Monday when Noll faces Xavier in the first game. Gasper faces Seifert Tuesday, and Drexel will draw a bye. All games will start promptly at 6:45 p. m., and will be played at the south end of the baseball field.

Managers of the teams are Louie Yugovich, Gasper; Bill Carlos, Drexel; Bob Shields, Seifert; Heinie Kaufman, Noll; and Bill Donohue, Xavier.

The umpiring will be handled by Charley and Gil Hodge, Paul Reichert and Hop Schoder.

St. Joe Beats Purdue U., But Loses To Indiana Team

After having the first two games postponed, the Puma baseball team encountered Purdue University and defeated them, 8-2.

Hop Schoder was the winning pitcher for the Pumas. Don Clark led the Puma attack with 3 hits out of 4 times at bat.

St. Joe's invaded Danville, Indiana, on Saturday, and walloped the Central Normal diamond nine, 15-6.

The Puma boys collected 16 hits, with Martel setting the pace with 4 tallies. Al Waznis was the winning pitcher. This was his first win for the St. Joe team.

Normal banged out 9 hits off three St. Joe pitchers, but that wasn't enough to overcome the hitting barrage of Collegevillers. In a big fifth inning the St. Joe team scored 10 runs and put the game on ice.

It's A Boy: Coach Joe

St. Joe's chances of winning the National Collegiate football crown in 1962 increased ninety percent in par value this week. Reason: The world was blessed with another Dienhart, Jimmy Joseph, last Saturday afternoon.

The proud Papa, head coach and athletic director, Joe Dienhart Sr., is already laying plans to make an All-American, all-round athlete out of the bundle from heaven. Jimmy won't be out for spring practice this year, but he may appear on the fall roster.

All Collegeville rejoiced with the Dienharts on the happy occasion. The Puma ball club celebrated the event by trouncing Central Normal on Saturday 15-6. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Puma Tennis Team Takes Chicago Teachers 4-3

St. Joseph's College tennis team began its season in sprightly fashion as it emerged victorious in a match over the netmen from Chicago Teachers College last Monday afternoon by a 4-3 margin. The games were played on the St. Joe courts.

In the singles matches, Knobby Walsh outscored his opponent in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, and Ralph Parker, the lone veteran of the squad, also won in straight sets, 6-1, 6-4. The Teachers took the remaining three singles contests; Pukelis lost, 6-2, 6-1, as did Klapheke, 6-1, 6-0, and Heitzman, 6-2, 6-4.

It was a different story in the doubles matches, however, as the combination of Parker and Collier won, 8-6, 6-0; Walsh and Klapheke bested their opponents in the only other doubles match by scores of 1-6, 6-0, 6-3.

Here, is Post Chaplain at Ft. Devens. He must report to Camp Pickett by Tuesday, May 12. In Virginia, Father Esser will be attached to the 89th Infantry Division.

Meet Wabash There Saturday Afternoon, Normal Here Apr. 21

Deadline rules at the printers will not allow us to carry the story of the outcome of this afternoon's game with the Titans of Illinois Wesleyan.

Just returned from a successful invasion of the sunny southland in which they met and impressed such strong opponents as Vanderbilt, Mississippi, and Pensacola, the Titans should be in top shape for this day's game.

Wesleyan is rated as the top ranking baseball college of the mid-west. They go into today's tussle with the Pumas as comfortable favorites.

Wabash Next

Dienhart will take his crew to face Wabash College on Saturday on the opposition's grounds. In keeping with Dienhart's policy no definite battery has been announced.

Normal Here

On Tuesday the Puma fans will get a chance to see the Collegeville nine in action in their fourth home game. Central Normal is the intended victim.

Although no reports have come in on Normal's capabilities, the Pumas are slated to take this game in stride.

Enthusiastic Audience Praises Band Concert

Dedicated to the members of the alumni in the service, last Thursday's concert by the college band, directed by Professor Paul Tonner, proved to be the most pleasing of all the annual spring concerts to date.

In a timely mood, the program included several patriotic ballads. Opening with the national anthem, the schedule included the "War Song of the Boys in Blue," "The American Patrol," and the "Marines' Hymn."

Perhaps most enjoyable to the audience were the solos and specialty numbers. Among these, Joe Reardon sang "Somewhere a Voice is Calling."

Stanley Pukelis' saxophone solo, "Call of the Sea," introduced to the students a feature in reed instruments never excelled in the college auditorium.

Frank Murray's baton act displayed a technique which promises to rival that of his brother, last year's twirler.

Commerce Club Dinner Now Set For April 27

Tentative plans are being made to hold the annual Commerce Club banquet at the Country Club, Monday, April 27, according to John Singletary, president of the organization.

Tickets for the dinner may be obtained from any officer. Soliciting will be continued in the halls for the rest of this week.

A key-significant of honorary membership in the group will be presented to an outstanding citizen of Rensselaer. Recipient of the honor last year was Judge Moses Leopold.

Raleigh Club To Stage Annual Spring Outing

According to the Rev. Clarence J. Kroeckel, C.P.P.S., moderator, the Raleigh Club is preparing for its annual spring outing.

Officers of the club have not yet decided whether to offer the members an all-day outing as they did last year, or to plan some sort of indoor entertainment. The possibility of treating each member to a free movie uptown is being considered.

Fr. Fehrenbacher Tells Of Monroe Doctrine

In the fourth of a series of programs sponsored by the St. Joseph's Civilian Morale Committee, the Rev. Frederick Fehrenbacher, C.P.P.S., college vice-president, delivered an interesting talk on "The Monroe Doctrine" last Saturday evening in the College Theatre.

Describing in detail the history of the famed doctrine from 1823, the year of its publication, and before, Father Fehrenbacher said that it agreed in every way with Washington's and Jefferson's policy of no foreign entanglements.

Looks Into Future

Father Fehrenbacher added that in three instances would the document be affected by the present war. In the event of an Axis victory, the victorious powers would probably take Canada, thus constantly jeopardizing our American freedom; if the Allies win, the doctrine will not, of course, be trampled.

In the case of a stalemate, the South American countries, because of their commerce with the foreign powers, might transfer their allegiance to those countries.

Keehner And Kremer Address Scientists

At the regular meeting of the Science club, plans were formulated for the coming Science Day which the club is sponsoring in cooperation with the faculty of the college.

The program portion of the meeting consisted of talks by Dave Kremer and John Keehner. The former spoke on Plastic Surgery, the latter gave an Introduction to Relativity.

At a meeting of the Science Club last Wednesday night, April 8, two movies, "Color Curves" and "Magic in Science," were shown.

Crowd Of 2500 Attends Jasper Music Festival

St. Joseph's Fieldhouse was the setting for the colorful ninth annual staging of the Jasper County Music Festival presented by the county's school pupils Friday evening.

The attendance at the delightful event approached 2500, the largest in the history of this spring festival.

Guest at the occasion was M. T. Malan of the music branch of the state department of education.

The Academy Corner

By Wehrle and McElroy

The Newman Club cast has been practicing very diligently every evening and other free moments of the day. The play will be put on sometime this week. The play consists of three mystery acts, which will prove to be very interesting to the audience. To speed things up Father Koch took Joe Probst and Lawrence Doyle up to his room to help them along with their parts; now both of them show much improvement.

Glancing About The Academy

Glancing about the Academy we see . . . Frank Clark studying very hard Saturday morning in the study hall, which has been quite irregular . . . Earl Redden and Mike Cody having their daily argument, which has not yet come to blows . . . Jerome E. Lange and Jack Shaw still sticking very close to each other . . . J. Vincent reading a very interesting eight-page letter which he received from a certain party. How about it, Caesar? . . . Gerry Whaley still putting on weight . . . John Wunderlich studying his play parts . . . Bob Richert giving his daily talk on what a great place Kankakee is.

Last week saw the returning of the students after a very happy Easter vacation at home.

Last Thursday evening the juniors had a meeting about the selection of their rings. The boys selected a new type of ring, which bears the emblem of St. Josephs. It is much different from the rings ever purchased before. The rings are supposed to be ready before the end of school. Father Gordon was of great help to the boys in making a good selection.

Ten Years From Now

Jim Richert being named head traveling salesman for the Seymour Corn and Belt Company.

Jack Mallock announcing the grand opening of the biggest bowling parlor in the history of Detroit.

Oscar Camandella taking over duties at second base for the New York Yankees.

Bob Vincent and Benny Domsic operating Hammond's number one food store.

Dream Makers Appear Before Curtain Club

At the regular meeting of the Curtain Club, the Dream Makers, under the direction of Gerald Koller, presented a number of musical selections.

The Dream Makers is a student orchestra composed of Community Students. Roman Rodak played several selections on his accordion, after which the meeting was adjourned.
